The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday September 12, to Saturday September 16, 1786.

St. James's, September 13.

THE following Addreſſes of the Archbiſhop, and Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitical Church of St. Peter in York, and of the Biſhop of Bath and Wells, the Dean and Chapter of Wells, and the Clergy of the City and Dioceſe, have been preſented to the King by his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Archbiſhop, and Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitical Church of Saint Peter in York.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Archbiſhop, and Dean and Chapter of your Cathedral and Metropolitical Church of Saint Peter in York, beg Leave to expreſs our Concurrence in the general Teſtimonies of a ſincere Attachment to your Royal Perſon, and to join in the public Congratulations on your providential Deliverance from a traiterous Attempt, which Inſanity only could have ſuggeſted.

However atrocious and alarming the Attempt was, it has been followed by this Satisfaction, that it has produced the moſt genuine Effuſions of Affection and Eſteem from all Ranks of your Majeſty's Subjects, and thoſe not ariſing from a caſual or ſhort Popularity, but from the ſober Deciſions of deliberate Judgment.

You have the Happineſs, Sir, to be the Sovereign of an honeſt People, who abhor ſuch Treaſons, not only as being wicked and contrary to the Welfare of common Society, but as particularly dangerous to free Conſtitutions, which are always brought into extreme Hazard by ſuch Attempts. In Addition to their general Reaſonings, they ſaw in the Perſon of your Majeſty a Life endangered, in the Preſervation of which their deareſt Intereſts were all involved.

Permit us, Sir, who conſider your Majeſty as not by Law only, but by Principle, the Defender of our Faith, to be as forward at leaſt as any others in the Expreſſions of our Zeal and Duty. We have already in our Prayers offered theſe the Feelings of our Hearts at the Throne of Grace; and we think ourſelves ſafe in expreſſing them to your Majeſty, being aſſured, from the Nobleneſs of your Nature, that they will excite in you no other Sentiments but thoſe of an increaſed Affection to a dutiful and deſerving People.

Given under the Hand and Seal of the ſaid Archbiſhop, and the Common Seal of the ſaid Dean and Chapter, the Ninth Day of September, in the Twenty-ſixth Year of your Majeſty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord, 1786.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop of Bath and Wells, the Dean and Chapter of Wells, and the Clergy of the City and Dioceſe.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, moſt humby intreat your Majeſty's Permiſſion to lay ourſelves at your Feet, to expreſs our Abhorrence of the late atrocious Attempt on your Sacred Perſon, and our grateful Senſe of the Divine Goodneſs in preſerving it from the Hands of a deſperate Aſſaſſin.

Though your Majeſty reigns ſecure in the Hearts of all your Subjects, in whom the mental Faculties are in a ſound State, the ſudden and ſecret Stroke of Inſanity no Power can repel, but that great and inviſible One, to whom all Hearts are open, and from whom no Secrets are hid.

Alarmed at the Danger from which your Majeſty has been providentially reſcued, and impreſſed with a lively Senſe of the Importance of your valuable Life to the Welfare of your Kingdoms, we offer up our devouteſt Prayers to that Divine Power for its Preſervation and Protection; beſeeching Him to diſtinguiſh it by His choiceſt Bleſſings, to render it full of Days, of Happineſs and Glory; imparting to a grateful People the Bleſſings that are the natural Reſult of a good Government, adminiſtered on the genuine Maxims of Wiſdom and Virtue.

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Rocheſter, has been preſented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Rocheſter, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Rocheſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Rocheſter, humbly approach your Majeſty with a truly grateful and pious Acknowledgment of the merciful Interpoſition of Providence in protecting your Sacred Perſon from the Arm of Violence, apparently actuated by a diſordered Mind, incapable of perceiving, what the Event has clearly manifeſted both at Home and Abroad, how entirely your Majeſty poſſeſſes the Hearts and Affections of all your People.

Happy in this Experience, we daily pray to Almighty God, the King of Kings, that your Majeſty and your Illuſtrious Deſcendents may for ever continue the Objects of Britiſh Loyalty and ſhining Examples to Britiſh Virtue.

[Signed by the Biſhop and 14 of the Clergy.]

[Price Seven-Pence.]

The following Addreſs of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter in Weſtminſter, has been preſented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Rocheſter, Dean of Weſtminſter, attended by the Reverend Sir Richard Cope, Bart. Sub-Dean, Dr. Hoare, Dr. Bell, Dr. Boſcawen, Dr. Finch, Dr. Jackſon, Dr. Pretyman, and Dr. Cleaver, Prebendaries, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter in Weſtminſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean and Chapter of your Collegiate Church of St. Peter in Weſtminſter, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, with a grateful and pious Senſe of the merciful Interpoſition of Providence in protecting your Sacred Perſon from the Hand of Violence, which could only be actuated by a diſordered Mind incapable of perceiving the eſſential Connection between your perſonal Safety and the public Welfare, but which has eventually proved, both at Home and Abroad, how entirely your Majeſty poſſeſſes the Hearts and Affections of all your People.

That your Majeſty, and your Illuſtrious Family, may long continue the Objects of the Loyalty, and Examples to the Virtue of theſe Kingdoms, is, and ever will be, our devout and daily Prayer.

Given at our Chapter Houſe at Weſtminſter, under our Common Seal, the Thirteenth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, 1786.

J. Rocheſter, Dean of Weſtminſter.

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop, the Dean, the Prebendaries and other Members of the Cathedral Church of Wincheſter, has been preſented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop, attended by the Reverend Dr. Vyſe, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop of the Dioceſe of Wincheſter, the Dean, the Prebendaries, with other Members of the Cathedral Church at Wincheſter, the Chancellor, the Commiſſary, the Archdeacons, and the Parochial Clergy of the ſame Dioceſe, alſo the Warden, the Fellows, Schoolmaſters and Scholars upon the Foundation at Wincheſter, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the Sentiments of Duty and Affection which we are always happy to expreſs, and to join our ſincere and hearty Congratulations with thoſe of the Reſt of your faithful People, upon the happy Deliverance of your Majeſty from the very alarming Danger, which, through the Inſanity of an unfortunate Lunatic, lately threatened your valuable Life, and with it the Continuance of thoſe Bleſſings which the Wiſdom of your Councils, and the Warmth of your paternal Affection, have hitherto ſhed upon your grateful People.

We aſſure your Majeſty, that although we needed not this humiliating Leſſon to teach us the Inſtability of human Happineſs, we ſhall make a profitable Uſe of it, by redoubling our Endeavours to inſtil into the Minds of your Subjects, within our reſpective Cures, a due Senſe of the Attachment which they owe to our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State, and of the Gratitude which is eſpecially due from them to your Majeſty, for your excellent Adminiſtration of thoſe important Concerns which immediately exerciſe your Royal Attention; and that we ſhall perſiſt, as we have always done, to make it a principal Object of our daily Prayers, that Providence, which hath preſerved you from the late impending Danger, may long extend its Care and Protection over you, and continue to our moſt excellent and gracious Queen, to your amiable, dutiful and affectionate Family, to us, and to your loyal People at large, all thoſe Bleſſings which the Virtue of your public Conduct, and the moral Excellence of your private Example, have ſpread throughout every Part of your Dominions.

[Signed by the Biſhop and 50 of the Clergy.

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter, and the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Cheſter, has been preſented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop, and the Reverend the Dean, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter, and the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Cheſter, beg Permiſſion to offer to your Majeſty our ſincereſt Congratulations on the late providential Deliverance of your Royal Perſon from the Hand of an Aſſaſſin.

It would be unbecoming in any Order of Men, it would be peculiarly offenſive in ours, to approach your Majeſty on this Occaſion with the Language of Adulation; but they who are in the ſmalleſt Degree acquainted with the uniformly moral and religious Tenor of your Majeſty's private Life, and who reflect, as they ought, on the many invaluable Bleſſings this Nation experiences under your Majeſty's mild and paternal Government, will not, we are confident, charge us with tranſgreſſing the ſtricteſt Bounds of Truth, when we ſay, that the Loſs of ſuch an Example, and ſuch a Sovereign, would have been one of the ſevereſt Calamities with which Heaven could have afflicted this Land; whatever Difference of Sentiments there may be on other Points, on this we believe there is but one Opinion.

It affords us ſome Conſolation to know that the ſole Contriver of this frantic Deſign was nothing more than a wretched Maniac; a Circumſtance, however, from which we may draw this awful Leſſon, that not only the Felicity, but the very Exiſtence of the greateſt Potentates, and the moſt flouriſhing Empires, may be endangered by the feebleſt Agents, and that in God alone is their Security and their Refuge.

The recent Proof He has been pleaſed to give us of this great Truth demands the warmeſt and devouteſt Expreſſions of our Thankfulneſs. And alarmed as all our Fears have juſt been by feeling ourſelves on the very Brink of Deſtruction, we implore with redoubled Ardour the Almighty Ruler of the Univerſe, that He would ſtill continue the ſame watchful Care over your Majeſty's Perſon, which He has already manifeſted in ſo ſignal an Inſtance; and that He would grant your Majeſty, and your Royal Family, a long Enjoyment of that Peace, Proſperity and general Satisfaction, which His Bleſſing on your Majeſty's Councils has viſibly diffuſed through every Part of your Dominions.

[Signed by the Biſhop and 84 of the Clergy.]

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop, Archdeacon and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Landaff, has been preſented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Archdeacon and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Landaff.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Biſhop, the Archdeacon and Chapter, and the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Landaff, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, humbly entreat your Majeſty graciouſly to accept our faithful

Congratulations

Congratulations on the Protection which the good Providence of God has lately vouchſafed to your Majeſty from the Attack of an inſane Aſſaſſin.

The Mildneſs of your Majeſty's Government, united with the exemplary Probity and Condeſcenſion of your private Life, can have left your Majeſty no deliberate Enemies, no Apprehenſion of Danger from the Malice of any of your Subjects. In the late calamitous Event your Majeſty will feel a Comfort, which is fully felt by all your People, from knowing, that the Hand of Violence was not armed againſt your Majeſty's Life by the Spirit of public Faction or private Diſcontent.

The worſt of Kings, in every Age and Country, have been encouraged by the adulatory Addreſſes of flagitious Men to perſevere in the Modes of Government deſtructive to the Freedom and Felicity of Mankind; Sincerity and Truth have been, in this Way, ſo often ſacrificed on the Altar of private Intereſt, as almoſt to render ſuſpicious the Profeſſions of honeſt Men on the faireſt Occaſions; yet, on this Occaſion, we fear not the being accuſed of Flattery or Inſincerity when we avow, in the Face of the World, that we believe there is not a ſingle Perſon in your Majeſty's Dominions who will not join with us in thanking God for this Inſtance of His Goodneſs towards you, and in praying that He will long continue to us the Happineſs, and the Liberty, civil and religious, which we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government.

Dated the Twenty-ſecond Day of Auguſt, 1786.

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Peterborough, has been preſented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop, and the Reverend Dr. Coryton, one of the Prebendaries, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Peterborough, Archdeacon and Clergy of the ſaid Dioceſe.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter, the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Peterborough, humbly intreat your Majeſty to accept our hearty Congratulations on your Majeſty's late providential Eſcape.

It is not leſs from Affection than Duty, that we implore Almighty God to grant your Majeſty a long and happy Reign in this World, and a Crown of immortal Glory in the World to come.

[Signed by the Biſhop and 60 of the Clergy.]

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Exeter, has been preſented to the King by the Reverend the Dean, and the Reverend James Carrington, one of the Prebendaries, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Exeter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Exeter, deeply affected with a Senſe of the great Danger to which your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon was lately expoſed, and of the irreparable Loſs which we of the Clergy, as well as your People in general, would have ſuffered, had the horrid Attempt againſt your Majeſty's Life ſucceeded, humbly beg Leave, with the ſincereſt Joy, to congratulate with your Majeſty upon your happy Deliverance, and to expreſs our thankful Acknowledgments for this ſignal Interpoſition of Providence in our Favour.

Under the ſtrong Impreſſion of theſe Sentiments, and as ſtrong a Conviction that the Continuance of the Bleſſings which we now enjoy under your Majeſty's Government depends, next to the Divine Providence, on the Influence of your Majeſty's Example, our daily and fervent Prayer to God is, that your Majeſty may long be preſerved to be His great Inſtrument in conveying them to us, and be bleſſed with ſuch a Length of Days, as may give Room to the ſplendid Virtues, which adorn your Majeſty's Character, to improve to the utmoſt for His Glory and the Public Benefit.

And we gladly take this Occaſion humbly to aſſure your Majeſty, that as we think ourſelves bound by all the Ties of Religion, Loyalty and Gratitude to make every Return to your Majeſty's Goodneſs that can be due from the moſt obedient Subjects to the beſt of Sovereigns; we ſhall not fail to inculcate the ſame Principles upon the Minds of the People committed to our Care, and to conjure them by every Motive of Duty and Intereſt to contribute all they can, in Proportion to their reſpective Powers and Opportunities, to the Proſperity, Peace and Happineſs of your Majeſty's Reign.

[Signed by the Biſhop and 59 of the Clergy.]

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Ely, has been preſented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop, and the Reverend the Dean, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Ely.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Ely, gratefully ſenſible of the Happineſs we enjoy under your Majeſty's conſtitutional and mild Government, and equally impreſſed with the trueſt Satisfaction from the Obſervation of your many Virtues, preſume to approach your Majeſty to expreſs our reſpectful Congratulations, amidſt the National Joy, for the providential Deliverance of your Sacred Perſon from the daring Hand of Aſſaſſination, which, through the whole Extent of theſe your Realms, could only have been directed by the wild Dictates of barbarous Inſanity.

We cannot be ſufficiently thankful to the ſupreme and wiſe Diſpoſer of all Events, that it hath pleaſed Him, at ſuch a Moment of Danger to theſe Nations, to be merciful unto them, and to ſhield them from Conſequences ſo alarming to their deareſt Intereſts. And we conceive it our Duty to conſider this ſignal Inſtance of Divine Interpoſition as an awakening Call upon your Subjects, duly to reflect on the Importance of your valuable Life to their national Felicity; and, agreeably to ſuch juſt Conviction, to endeavour to render themſelves worthy the Continuance of it, by an uninterrupted Courſe of true Piety and Loyalty.

With the ſincereſt Sentiments of dutiful Attachment, we at the ſame Time ſympathize in that Alarm and Anxiety, which muſt have actuated the Feelings of Her Majeſty and your numerous and amiable Offſpring, who by this deſperate and mad Attempt, in Addition to the general Diſtreſs which would have followed it, were threatened with ſo grievous an Interruption of their moſt intereſting domeſtic and ſocial Conſolations.

It is our earneſt and conſtant Prayer to Almighty God, that your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Sovereignty may ever experience His Divine Protection, and that yourſelf and Royal Houſe may long continue the exemplary Guardians of our ineſtimable civil and religious Eſtabliſhment. And it is likewiſe the Subject of our moſt ſincere Petitions, that your Dominions may deſerve the Bleſſing of a regular Succeſſion of thoſe deſcended from you, who, after the illuſtrious Precedent ſet them by your Majeſty, may reign in the Hearts of an happy and proſperous People.

Dated the Fourth Day of September, 1786.

[Signed by the Biſhop and 44 of the Clergy.]

St. James's, September 13.

This Day the following Addreſs of the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters was preſented to the King by the Reverend Dr. Samuel Stennett, attended by Seventeen other Miniſters of that Body, being introduced by the Marquis of Carmarthen, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with our warmeſt Congratulations on the late ſignal Interpoſition of Divine Providence in Favour of your Majeſty's invaluable Life: An Event which has afforded Joy to all your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, and to none more than the Proteſtant Diſſenters, who look up with affectionate Reverence to the diſtinguiſhed Virtues of their Sovereign, and who feel themſelves happy in the Enjoyment of their Civil and Religious Liberties, which have received ſo memorable a Confirmation and Enlargement ſince your Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms.

To that Great Being, whoſe Arm ſo graciouſly ſhielded your Majeſty's Perſon in the Moment of Danger, we have offered our moſt grateful Acknowledgements; fervently praying, that the like Senſe of the Divine Interference which your Majeſty devoutly feels, might be deeply impreſſed on the Hearts of all your Subjects.

Permit us, Sir, to add, that our Joy on this Occaſion is greatly heightened, by reflecting that the horrid Stroke your Majeſty ſo happily eſcaped was guided not by the Hand of premeditated Malice, but of compaſſionable Infanity: The Repoſe which this Conſideration juſtly creates in your Majeſty's Breaſt and that of your Royal Conſort, cannot fail of affording the higheſt Satisfaction to your People, whoſe Happineſs is intimately connected with that of their Sovereign.

With great Pleaſure we embrace this Opportunity of aſſuring your Majeſty of our affectionate and inviolable Attachment to your Perſon and Government; nor will we ceaſe, Sir, to offer our moſt ardent Prayer to Almighty God, that your Life may be protracted, under the Smiles of Providence, to the moſt diſtant Period; and that the Crown your Majeſty received from your Illuſtrious Anceſtors, may deſcend, adorned with all their and your princely Virtues, to your lateſt Poſterity.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt Gracious Anſwer:

I Thank you for this dutiful and loyal Addreſs, and for your affectionate Congratulations on My providential Eſcape from the Attempt which was made upon My Perſon. I have a firm Dependance upon your ſteady Attachment to My Family and Government; and you may be aſſured of the Continuance of My Protection in the Enjoyment of your Civil and Religious Liberties.

They were all received very graciouſly, and had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

The following Addreſs of the Miniſters, Elders, and Deacons of the French and Dutch Churches, has been preſented to the King by the Reverend Henry Putman, Miniſter of the Dutch Church, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The moſt humble Addreſs of the Miniſters, Elders and Deacons of the French and Dutch Churches, eſtabliſhed by King Edward the Sixth.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Miniſters, Elders and Deacons of the French and Dutch Proteſtant Churches of the City of London, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, heartily to congratulate your Majeſty on the happy Preſervation of your Majeſty's moſt valuable Life when lately expoſed to Danger.

When we heard of the atrocious Deed, Horror and Perplexity filled our Minds; but when we found that the raſh Attempt had been rather the Effect of Inſanity than of any other Cauſe, we praiſed the Supreme Governor of the Univerſe, and inſtantly ſent up our Thanks to Heaven for your Majeſty's Safety and Preſervation; and we ceaſe not to pray for a long Continuance of your Majeſty's ineſtimable Life, Health and Proſperity.

May the King of Kings continue to ſend down His choiceſt Bleſſings upon your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, Family and Government; and may our Churches, eſtabliſhed here almoſt at the firſt dawn of the Reformation, continue to enjoy your Majeſty's moſt gracious and powerful Protection.

[Signed by 42 Miniſters, Elders and Deacons.]

The Five following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Maſter, Pilots, and Seamen of the Corporation of the Trinity Houſe in Newcaſtle upon Tyne.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Corporation of the Maſter, Pilots, and Seamen of the Trinity houſe in Newcaſtle upon Tyne, beg Leave humbly to approach your Throne with Hearts fully fraught with theſe ineſtimable Bleſſings we have always experienced under your Majeſty's Government, and to render Thanks to the Almighty for His moſt Divine Interpoſition in averting the late Attempt of a dangerous Aſſaſſin on your Majeſty's Life and Perſon.

That the ſame bleſſed Providence may ever guard your Majeſty in all Attempts whatſoever againſt your Majeſty's moſt Sacred Life, and a long Continuance of it in perfect Safety, is our moſt fervent Prayer.

Given under the Common Seal of our Corporation, the Fifth of September, 1786.

Joſeph Airey, Maſter.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Flint, aſſembled at the Great Seſſion holden at Mold on Tueſday the Twenty-ninth Day of Auguſt, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-ſix, at all Times ready to expreſs that Zeal and Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government which naturally flow from the Breaſts of a well affected People, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon, and in the fulleſt Manner to aſſure your Majeſty of the Bleſſings we feel under this your mild and happy Government; and to expreſs our ſincere Congratulations upon your Majeſty's great and providential Eſcape from the Hand of Violence

lence which was ſo lately raiſed againſt your Sacred Perſon, ſincerely praying, that Providence will at all Times watch over and protect you from the like Attempts, and permit you long to reign over a happy, free and independent People.

[Signed by the Sheriff and 16 of the Grand Jury.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Aberdeen, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Aberdeen, beg Leave at this Time to approach your Royal Perſon, under a deep Senſe of the great Importance of your Majeſty's valuable Life to the Happineſs and Proſperity of theſe your Kingdoms; and to aſſure your Majeſty, that we reflect with equal Aſtoniſhment and Horror on the late moſt atrocious and daring Attack made upon it by the Hand of a deſperate Aſſaſſin.

At the ſame Time, when we conſider the very ſignal Preſervation of your Majeſty's Perſon in ſo dangerous and alarming a Situation, we feel the utmoſt Gratitude and Thankfulneſs for the Care of Divine Providence, and do in the moſt dutiful and affectionate Manner congratulate your Majeſty upon ſo eminent and remarkable a Deliverance to yourſelf, your Royal Family, and to your faithful People.

Signed in Name, in Preſence, and by Appointment of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of Aberdeen, and the Common City Seal is hereto affixed at Aberdeen, the Fifth Day of September, in the Year 1786, by William Cruden, Provoſt.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough and Pariſh of Barneſtaple in the County of Devon.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, beg Leave to approach the Throne, to teſtify our Regard and Attachment for your Royal Perſon, and to congratulate your Majeſty upon your late providential Eſcape, and moſt ſincerely hope, that the Almighty Arm which has hitherto protected your Majeſty will ſtill continue you long to reign over a free and happy Nation.

Given at the Guildhall, under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough and Pariſh, this Ninth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, 1786.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Sudbury, in the County of Suffolk.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes and Principal Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Sudbury, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our warmeſt Congratulations on your Majeſty's late happy Eſcape from the Danger which threatened your Sacred Life from the Hand of an infatuated Maniac.

Deeply impreſſed with a Senſe of the Happineſs we enjoy under the Auſpices of a Prince, who makes the Welfare and Proſperity of His Subjects the uniform Object of His Government, we cannot without Horror reflect on the Atrociouſneſs of an Attempt, which, had it not been providentially hindered from taking Effect, muſt, in depriving us of a Sovereign ſo juſtly eſteemed the Father of his People, have been productive of the greateſt National Calamity.

Whilſt, therefore, we join the general Voice of the Nation in humble Thanks to that Gracious Being, who watches over the Life of Kings for your Majeſty's late Deliverance from the Aſſaſſin's Steel, permit us, Sire! to add our fervent Prayers, that you may long continue to reign over a happy, free, and united People; and that the Bleſſings we enjoy under the mild and parental Government of ſo revered a Monarch, may be tranſmitted by your Majeſty's Deſcendants to our lateſt Poſterity.

Given under our Common Seal, the Sixth Day of September, 1786.

The Five following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Rutland, Lord Lieutenant of the Kingdom of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been preſented to the King; Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The dutiful and loyal Addreſs of the Biſhop and Clergy of the United Dioceſes of Limerick, Ardfert and Aghadoe.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop and Clergy of the United Dioceſes of Limerick, Ardfert and Aghadoe, intreat your Royal Permiſſion to offer at the Foot of the Throne our moſt ſincere Congratulations for your Majeſty's Preſervation from the late atrocious Attempt; Inſanity alone could raiſe its Arm againſt the Breaſt of the Father of His People. We are particularly ſhocked, when we reflect upon the melancholy Conſequences which muſt have attended the Perpetration of the horrid Crime: The Nation would have loſt the beſt of Kings, the Church its moſt gracious Head and Defender. We therefore return our warmeſt and moſt ſincere Thanks to that protecting Providence, which in the Hour of Danger ſo ſignally interpoſed for your Majeſty's Preſervation, and beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that our conſtant Prayer to Heaven ſhall be for the Continuance of its watchful Care of a Life ſo precious to all your Majeſty's Subjects, and ſo neceſſary to the Proſperity of the Proteſtant Religion.

[Signed by the Biſhop and 12 of the Clergy.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and moſt dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Recorder, Common Council and Citizens of the City of Limerick, humbly approach your Throne, with Sentiments of the moſt ſincere Attachment and unfeigned Reſpect, to congratulate your Majeſty, and the Royal Family, on your Majeſty's late providential Eſcape from the horrid Attempt againſt your Royal Perſon.

Truly ſenſible of the numerous Bleſſings we have enjoyed, under our mild and excellent Conſtitution, ſince your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Crown, the Council and Citizens of your ancient City of Limerick unite their Prayers with the Reſt of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, and earneſtly implore the Almighty to preſerve your Sacred Life, long and auſpiciouſly to reign over the free People of your Empire.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have cauſed the Corporation Seal of the ſaid City to be hereunto affixed, this Twenty-ſixth Day of Auguſt, 1786.

[Signed by 133 Perſons.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The loyal and dutiful Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Kilkenny.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Kilkenny, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with the warmeſt Affection, Duty and Reſpect, and with the moſt ſincere Profeſſions of inviolable Attachment.

When we reflect upon the Danger from which your Majeſty has lately eſcaped, we cannot but be ſenſible of ſo ſignal an Inſtance of the Interpoſition of Providence, and offer to Heaven our earneſt Prayers for the long Continuance of your Majeſty's Life.

We humbly entreat your Majeſty to accept our warmeſt Congratulations, and to believe that we are, as we ought to be, highly ſenſible of the numberleſs Bleſſings which we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government.

[Signed by 161 Perſons.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Longford, convened at Longford on the Second Day of September, 1786.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty in Terms of the moſt warm and heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Diſappointment of the moſt wicked Attempt recently meditated againſt your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon.

Your Majeſty's Magnanimity will ever riſe ſuperior to every Danger, and the Firmneſs and Humanity your Majeſty diſplayed on the late Emergency, manifeſted the Virtues of the King, and of the Man; but we, your Majeſty's affectionate Subjects, even in this Hour of Security and Complacence, cannot look back on the inexpreſſible Calamity which then threatened us, without yielding to the Impreſſion of Horror and Indignation.

May Heaven, as in the late Inſtance, ever hold a Shield of Defence before your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, and continue it's gracious Watchfulneſs over that invaluable Life, ſo deeply and tenderly intereſting to the Happineſs of your faithful People, and ſo material to the general Cauſe of Religion and Virtue.

Geo. Maconchy, Sheriff.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury and Noblemen of the County of Wicklow, at Wicklow aſſembled, Summer Aſſizes, 1786.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury and Noblemen of the County of Wicklow, aſſembled at Summer Aſſizes, 1786, embrace the earlieſt Opportunity preſented to us of expreſſing our truly heartfelt Satisfaction at the happy Eſcape of your Majeſty from the late horrid Attempt on your Majeſty's Life. While we bleſs Divine Providence for its ſignal Protection manifeſted at the late awful Criſis, we cannot but admire the Firmneſs of Soul, the Lenity and Humanity ſhewn by your Majeſty on that Occaſion, perfectly ſatisfied as we are that abſolute Inſanity alone could lift her parricidial Hand againſt the Friend of Mankind, and the Father of His People.

[Signed by 27 Perſons.]

The following Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Oxford, has been preſented to the King by Joſeph Grote, Eſq; Sheriff of the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Oxford.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Oxford, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Royal Perſon with our moſt ſincere Congratulations to your Majeſty, and grateful Thanks to Heaven for the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life in the late Moment of impending Danger.

Firmly attached to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government, under which we enjoy ſo many great and important Bleſſings, we reflect with Horror on the late daring Attempt of a wretched Aſſaſſin; and we cannot reſiſt the Impulſe of our Feelings, in entreating your Majeſty to be careful of a Life ſo dear to us, and ſo important to the Nation.

By Order of the Meeting of the County,

Joſeph Grote, Sheriff.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County Palatine of Lancaſter, has been preſented to the King by Sir John Parker Moſley, Bart. Sheriff, and Sir Aſhton Lever, Knt. Foreman of the Grand Jury of the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County Palatine of Lancaſter, aſſembled in the Caſtle of Lancaſter, the Twenty-eighth Day of Auguſt, 1786.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

UNDER a thorough Conviction of the many Virtues which have rendered your Reign eminently illuſtrious, we beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty, and the Whole of this favoured Nation, upon your late moſt providential Eſcape from the Attempt of an Aſſaſſin; an Attempt which nothing but Inſanity could have made, and which hath been followed by the Prayers of a grateful and loyal People for your Proſperity.

Diſtant as we are from the Centre of your Government, we have Hearts truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we have received, and ſhall always continue fervent in our Wiſhes for the Preſervation of your exemplary Life, for that of your moſt amiable Conſort, and for the Continuance of that general Felicity of which thoſe Events muſt be naturally productive.

[Signed by the Sheriff and 23 Perſons.]

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes, Freemen, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Camelford, has been preſented to the King by Jonathan Phillipps, Eſq; Recorder, and James Macpherſon, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes, Freemen, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Camelford in the County of Cornwall.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and affectionate Subjects, impreſſed with the moſt lively Senſe

Senſe of Reſpect, Attachment and Regard for thoſe many Virtues, which diſtinguiſh your Majeſty's Royal Character, beg Leave moſt humbly to approach the Throne with our Tribute of Gratitude for the Bleſſings we enjoy, under your mild, wiſe, and juſt Government.

Actuated by our Feelings of thoſe Bleſſings, we preſume to make a Tender of our moſt hearty and ſincere Congratulations, on your Majeſty's late Eſcape from the late Attempt of Aſſaſſination made upon your Sacred Perſon. Conſidering, in common with the Reſt of our Fellow Subjects, how important your Majeſty's Life is to our Happineſs and Safety, we come forward to offer our moſt grateful Thanks to Heaven, for averting thoſe Calamities which impended over our Country. That the Almighty may long, very long preſerve your Majeſty's invaluable Life, and render your Reign happy, proſperous and glorious, is the conſtant and moſt fervent Prayer of, may it pleaſe your Majeſty, your moſt faithful, affectionate, and loyal Subjects.

[Signed by 41 Perſons.]

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Borough of Thetford, has been preſented to the King by William Altham, Eſq; one of the Burgeſſes, attended by Sir Charles Kent, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Borough of Thetford, in the Counties of Norfolk and Suffolk.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Borough of Thetford, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence with the moſt heartfelt Congratulations on the ſignal Preſervation of your Majeſty's invaluable Life from the late deſperate Attempt againſt it.

At the ſame Time that we offer up to Providence our fervent Thanks for Its gracious Prevention of the intended Blow, permit us, Sire! to expreſs our Exultation in poſſeſſing a Sovereign, againſt whoſe Sacred and beloved Perſon the Voice of a happy People unanimouſly proclaims, that nothing but Inſanity itſelf could have armed the Hand of Treaſon.

Given at our Guildhall, under our Common Seal, this 4th Day of September, 1786.

Whitehall, September 16.

The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint the Right Honourable William Pitt, James Graham, (commonly called Marquis of Graham) the Honourable Edward James Eliot, Sir John Aubrey, Bart. and the Right Honourable Richard Earl of Mornington of the Kingdom of Ireland, Knight of the Illuſtrious Order of St. Patrick, to be Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Treaſurer of His Majeſty's Exchequer.

The King has been pleaſed to grant to Grey Elliott, Eſq; the Office of an Additional Clerk of His Majeſty's Moſt Honourable Privy Council in Ordinary, for the particular Service of the Committee of Privy Council, appointed for the Conſideration of all Matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations.

St. James's, September 13.

The King was this Day pleaſed to confer the Honour of Knighthood on

William Altham, of the Borough of Thetford, Eſq; and Jonathan Phillipps, of St. Stephens near Launceſton, in the County of Cornwall, Eſq.
